Prospects of the Formation of a Thoroughly Radical Ministry.

The Pope Desires the Prayers of His Bishops.

BY OCEAN TELEGRAPH.

The Italian Revolution.

SAILING OF THE PAPAL ARMY AT TOULON.

LONDON, Oct. 29—Midnight.

The following despatches were received to-night:

PARIS, Oct. 29—Night.

The fleet of war steamers left Toulon this morning, under orders to proceed direct to Civita Vecchia.

The embarkation of troops on board transports at Toulon is completed, and a despatch announcing their departure for Italy is momentarily expected.

ADVANCE OF GARIBALDI.

FLORENCE, Oct. 29—Evening.

The soldiers of King Victor Emanuel refuse to fight against Garibaldi. The cause of national unity in the court of the King's government is gaining ground. It is now considered certain that a thoroughly Radical ministry will be formed, whose policy will be devoted to making Rome the capital of Italy.

ROME DECLARED THE PRAYERS OF THE BISHOPS.

ROME, Oct. 29.

The Pope in a letter to his Bishops says the patrimony of the church is attacked by revolutionists, and asks them to order prayers for the Holy See.

BLOODY FIGHT IS NOW.

The police to-day attacked the Garibaldians, but resistance. They attacked it with the bayonet and fifteen Garibaldians were killed and thirty-six wounded. A quantity of arms and bombs were captured.

The Russian Demand for the Caution of Candia to Greece—The Sultan's Emphatic Refusal—Russia's Policy.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The Tribune's Constantinople letter says Turkey has refused decidedly the Russian demand to cede Candia to Greece. It is, the writer says, still out. Should the policy Turkey to-day until Europe is easy with its own affairs, the writer says, it may be respected, and if war comes now, this rejected advice will be pronounced to be the justification for it.

FROM SPRINGFIELD.

Private Laws and Reports Ready for Distribution—Work on the Site of the new State House.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 28.

The distribution of the private laws, reports, etc., by the Secretary of State will commence to-morrow, the printing and binding having been completed.

The work on the site of the new State House was formally commenced this morning, and is to be continued vigorously. The Commissioners hope to get the ground cleared, the foundation completed, and the foundation commenced during the present season.

The State Geologist returned to town on Saturday evening, from Mercer County, where he has spent the past week in exploring the coaling and mineral districts of that portion of the State. His report will be completed in the course of a few days. The Courier office has its roof off. The Western part of the county, it outcrops at the surface and is worked to advantage on the Illinois river. The principal vein is about six feet in thickness, with a fine quality of coal. Within the past twenty-five feet lower down. It is the same strata as that worked at the Spring Valley mines, at La Salle, which is now supplying Springfield at ten cents per bushel.

POLITICAL.

The Campaign in Wisconsin—A Correspondent Explodes Another Fraudulent Card from the Republican Business Men of Milwaukee.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 28.

The report having been industriously circulated throughout the State that the Republican business men of the Republican business men and merchants of Milwaukee would vote for Talmadge, Democratic candidate for Governor, because of personal friendship, they have published a card contradicting the statement.

"We assure our friends throughout the State that the full Republican vote of Milwaukee will be given for the ticket which represents the principles of the party, and we have never regarded it because that ticket is so largely composed of men who have been prominently identified with Democratic principles in the national army, some of whom will in every way bear on their political complexion and their devotion to the cause of the country while a majority of the party have not been the head of a ticket which depends mainly for support on the votes of those who, in the dark days of the rebellion, deserted the flag in the field and scouted at our soldiers as hirelings, and called Abraham Lincoln a tyrant."

Application for an Enlargement of the Charter of the Erie & Ontario Railway—Arrest of Ministerial Supporters—The Financial Excitement at Toronto Dying Out.

ONTARIO, Oct. 28.—Notice is given that an application will be made to the Legislature of Ontario to call in the charter of the Erie & Ontario Railway Company, and grant a new one from the line to the Detroit River.

Yesterday the Orange Lodgeders in the late demonstration of the ship carpenters' strike were arrested. To-day a number of the strikers themselves attempted a rescue, but were driven off by the police. Bail is easily obtained, and after the release of the prisoners, but refused. The excitement is greatly subsiding, and work will be resumed to-morrow.

The Welland Navigation Company, with a view of extending operations next year, have purchased a large tract of land on the north side of the American steamers Cataract, Bay State, Lord Elgin and Ontario.

TORONTO, Oct. 28.—The run on the banks has entirely ceased. The panic has subsided, and matters are fast returning to their usual channel.

SHERIDAN.

The General's Visit to Portland, Me.—An Enthusiastic Welcome.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Oct. 28.—Sheridan stopped a few minutes here this morning, and is now in Portland to-day, and should bands with a large concourse of people, and was received with evidence.

PORTLAND, Me., Oct. 28.—Sheridan arrived at one o'clock, and was received by a salute and the ringing of church bells. The city government and were at the station to meet the party. Mayor Deering welcomed the General at the City Hall. The Courier office has its roof off. The residence of Dr. J. Stark, correspondent of the Portland Press, was completely destroyed by fire. The Custom House had a hall blown down. The Post Office building, Post Office, the hotels and Congress Hall, and the new building of Libby, Day & Co., was totally destroyed. Loss about $100,000. The Van Solson Murder Case at St. Paul.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 28.

The evidence in the VAN SOLSON case was concluded to-day, but the Judge withheld his decision until Monday. There is scarcely a doubt that he will be held for trial.

Revenue Frauds in New York—Burglary and Swindling.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Nine distillers, &c., have been arrested to-day.

The Post says an officer connected with the Internal Revenue service, yesterday visited a bonded warehouse at numbers 450 and 452 Fourth avenue, and found what he seized to be 2,000 gallons of whisky, and about 6,000 gallons of whiskey had been removed from the premises. The officer also seized the bonds given at the time of the seizure are worthless, and that the fourth of a million dollars of taxes of three thousand dollars.

A burglary occurred at the store of Wm. Henrson was entered the morning on a charge of having in his possession counterfeit money. He was committed to await a preliminary examination.

The jobbing shop of John H. Holder, York street, Brooklyn, was robbed on Saturday night of nearly $6,000.

Attempted Assassination in Portland, Me.—Unknown Assailant—Mayor of Railway Train Down the Track.

SACO, Me., Oct. 28.—F. C. Adams, mail agent between Boston and Portland, was attacked on the train last night. The ball grazed his head, removing his hat, and passed through the window. He then clubbed him with the butt of the pistol, inflicting severe injuries. Adams jumped from the car, and the would-be murderer or his reasons for the attempt are unknown.

PORTLAND, Oct. 28.—Another villainy attempted, on Saturday evening, to throw the northern express train on the Boston & Maine Railroad, at Thornton's Ferry, on the Concord Railroad, by placing a block of rail, almost five inches long, across the track in front of the switch. Fortunately the train was moving slowly, and the engine passed over the obstruction at a slow speed and no damage was done.

Fight Between the Blackfeet and Sioux Yesterday—Ninety of the Latter Killed—Provisions for the Treaty with the Kiowas and Comanches.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

OMAHA, Oct. 28, via DENVER, Oct. 29.

It is reported from reliable sources that a fight has taken place between the Blackfeet and Sioux Yesterday. The latter lost ninety men. They have joined as allies with the Sioux.

WASHINGTON.

Frauds Brought to Light by the Ordnance Investigation.

Treasury Decisions Relative to Cotton and Whiskey Transactions.

Abstract of the Quarterly Report of the National Banking Association.

Statistics Showing the Industrial Resources of the Pacific States.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.

All information concerning the number of contractors purchased by Mr. Johnson is peculiarly refused at the Attorney General's office. The list is known to be very large, and the only reason for withholding it which has transpired is the one Binckley confided to a supposed friend of the President, to the effect that its publication could not but prove very injurious to the administration, and it was withheld from prudential reasons.

ORDNANCE INVESTIGATION.

The Ordnance Committee have learned there are one hundred thousand of the condemned Dyer projectiles, four and a half calibre, on storage at the arsenal, and that besides several thousands have been broken up for old iron, at Fortress Monroe. Each cost the government between three and four dollars. This was the invention and improvement of which was perfected and patented by a mechanic, and claimed by Dyer.

SECRETARY SEWARD.

A strong presentiment is held before the President against Secretary Seward, respecting the contemplated visit of the Russian princess to London. His removal is strongly urged. The President has promised to act in the matter.

Several politicians, from both the North and the South, have been here for the purpose of ascertaining this views on the most prominent candidates for the Vice Presidency from him on the subject.

THE ATTORNEY GENERALSHIP.

The annual report of Secretary McCulloch for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1867, is complete and will, it is said, be sent to the President on the 1st of November. It will be made to Congress as soon as the annual report of the Secretary is in readiness. It is said that no recommendations are urged in connection to Mr. McCulloch, here departure from office, as that is the work of procuring a change in that department.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The New York Times' Washington special says: Impeachment is gathering no strength. Members who were cold at the close of the last session. In the New Congress, however, it will be pressed with more vigor to impeachment. A leading member from that State, who is a radical, informed a friend of mine here he did not believe there were half a dozen votes in the House for impeachment. He knows of no one of the Republicans who will vote for it.

THE PROPOSITION FOR A CONVENTION.

The proposition for a conventional session of Congress, to be held in December, will be formally received by the Republican members who will meet here to-night.

HUNT.

The New York Times' special says: "A Southern Senator has had a political conversation with President Johnson, in which Johnson frankly will not accept the nomination for the Presidency, but will, if nominated, run for it, and accept it as the representative of the conservative party.

KENTUCKY CONSERVATIVES.

The New York Times' special says: "The Committee on Resolutions, in their report on the charges of disloyalty against the Kentucky delegation in Congress, in which Messrs. Grover and Trimble, and it is understood others were also mentioned, pointed have become satisfied that such charges are coming from the Republican party, and will be met by a counter charge of disloyalty. So far as other distinguished men of the party are concerned, there was not much inclination, they say, to make such charges against them.

Surgeon J. D. Murphy died of yellow fever at Pascagoula on the 26th.

PERSONAL.

Secretary Seward, accompanied by Vice Admiral Porter, was at the Navy Department this morning.

REVENUE MATTERS.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that the selling or offering to sell distilled spirits at less than two dollars per wine gallon is evidence that the tax thereon, if any, in fact has not been paid, because the spirits may be sold for export.

It is not intended by the recent cotton regulations of the Treasury Department to prevent sales of lint for the removal of cotton from the plantations, but to prevent the lint from being produced, as in case of removal from such districts it would escape the payment of the tax-payer for marking his cotton.

The report of more counterfeits discovered on the compound interest notes in New York is incorrect. They are the same counterfeit discovered several months since, none having recently passed the departments here.

THE CONDITION OF THE NATIONAL BANKS.

The abstract of the National Banking Associations shows increase of one thousand four hundred and ninety-five millions, including over ten millions of specie, and one million of legal tender in deposits and loans; also increase of one million in compound interest notes. Capital stock, four hundred thousand and a half millions; circulation, eight-six millions and two-thirds, and undivided profits of thirty-three and a half millions.

PRODUCTIVENESS OF THE PACIFIC SLOPE.

The Treasury Department has in course of the Pacific coast, and is working on an official report. It will be published in a few days, and includes a representation of the resources, productiveness and industry in and to be absolutely wonderful. Both gold and silver are found in vast quantities, and the mineral resources of the following: Monterey, $1,000,000; Colorado, $2,000,000; Nevada, $20,000,000; Oregon, $1,000,000; Idaho, $1,000,000; Montana, $5,000,000; Arizona, $1,000,000; New Mexico, $5,000,000; Utah, $5,000,000; Washington Territory, $1,000,000; California, $100,000,000. Total, $150,000,000.

The report will set forth the fact that the Pacific States are emerging into the era of a fruitful agriculture, and that besides several thousands have been broken up for old iron, at Fortress Monroe. Each cost the government between three and four dollars. This was the invention and improvement of which was perfected and patented by a mechanic, and claimed by Dyer.

Illinois Industrial University.

The Illinois Industrial University will go into operation early next spring. This institution, chartered by the Legislature, and munificently endowed by a Congressional grant of lands, is located near the city of Champaign, and has a tract of land, suitable for experimental farming, six hundred acres in extent. By the terms of the law which called it into being, it is designed to promote knowledge of the sciences relating to agriculture and the mechanic arts, of course with a view to promote the wealth and advance the happiness of the people. We are not advised as to the scope of the institution is to be, and how much theoretical; we trust, however, that there will be room for the former to furnish a partial support. The young man who will seek the solence of the school will have the benefit of the latest researches of the most students for the higher around more in tive places in the industrial enterprises w which the land abounds.

The necessity for the multiplication of institutions for the promotion of positive knowledge among the working men has been apparent to all those who have closely observed the dependence of civilization upon the progress of the arts. Especially does the country need the services of men trained in the research and art, which science intimately ...ate to the everyday concerns of life. The demand for such men is far in excess of the supply. Hundreds of engineers are now seeking employment, who cannot be found, and we trust that the union of theoretical knowledge and practical skill necessary to successfully combine them. Our national shortcomings as a manufacturing people are due, not so much to want of capital or lack of willingness to embark in new undertakings, as to scarcity of the qualities in our people which will command success. We have not that patient application to the acquisition of indispensable preliminary knowledge—that care in laying down corner-stones—which marks the producing classes in Europe; hence, in thousands of cases, some trifling omission of knowledge, no offer of pay, however large, can call forth the men who are needed to conduct the industrial establishments that are everywhere springing up. The man who is thoroughly fitted to discharge the duties of master mechanic on any railroad of average length and business, can command larger pay, and can look forward to a more honorable and permanent career than nine-tenths of the lawyers, doctors and clergymen of this city. Ten thousand dollars a year is not an unusual compensation for a capable superintendent of a cotton factory, an iron mill or a successful mine; and though that sum may seem large, it often fails to call out the skill, the energy and the ex... cutive ability that are demanded. We know of a master builder in this city who is employed by the year by an eminent merchant largely engaged in the improvement of his property, at a salary of twenty-five hundred dollars, and included; and on some of the government works in Chicago the pay of the chief operatives is greater than that of the officials who are above them. There are plenty of men who have the natural ability to exalt them to ... trust; but when a man has actually entered the whirl of business the opportunity for the acquisition of theoretical knowledge is greatly circumscribed; then no amount of application can make up for the deficiencies of early education. Here has been our misfortune. That it is owing partly to the lack of proper schools in which the required training could be had, and partly to the pluck... of our people and the ... al and how much theoretical; ... however, that there will be ... the former to furnish a partial ... the young men who will seek ... advantages of the school will ... of the latest researches of the ... students for the higher ... ive places in the industrial ...
